

Dr. James Ding is a Deputy Principal Government Counsel at the International Law Division, Department of Justice of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China. He advises the government on various public and private international law issues. He was seconded to the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law in the Netherlands in 2001. He attended negotiations of several Hague Conventions as a member of the Chinese delegation and was also a member of the Drafting Committee for the Hague Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance.

He obtained LL.B (Hons) and a Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (Distinction) from the University of Hong Kong, LL.M from Kyushu University, Japan and Ph.D. from the University of Queensland, Australia. He became a barrister in Hong Kong in 1997 and joined the Department of Justice in 1999. He also taught on a part-time basis at the Faculty of Law of the University of Hong Kong and the Open University of Hong Kong from 1998-1999.