

Working international cases effectively with the United States now and under the new Hague Convention

Heidelberg Conference – Recovery of Maintenance in the EU and Worldwide

Eliza Lowe

Eliza (Liza) Lowe is a Policy Specialist with the U.S. Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE), Division of Policy. She is part of the U.S. Central Authority team that handles the 2007 Family Maintenance Convention implementation, bilateral agreements, international policy, and customer inquiries. Her areas of responsibility include international and interstate child support enforcement, regulatory drafting, and payment processing. Prior to joining OCSE, Liza worked in the Federal Office of Community Services, managing grant programs to assist low-income families through social services and asset-building strategies. Liza has a Master in Public Policy from the Georgetown Public Policy Institute and received a Bachelor of Arts from Princeton University.